Obtained Initiation Report of Captain Joseph Vaclavik dated 30 November 2007. Captain Vaclavik #97, advised that on the date of this incident, 30 Nov 2007, the 001st District Tactical Team was preparing to conduct a reverse sting operation (drugs) in the Harold Ickey Homes. Tactical Beat 164B (four officers) was parked at the location of 24th Street and Wabash, awaiting instruction from Sergeant Bosak #1347 regarding the sting. While at the location, the arrestee/complainant, [REDACTED] who is a known drug dealer in the area and also known not to be in possession of a driver's license, drove past in his vehicle, going through a red light at 24th Street and Michigan Avenue. Beat 164B activated their oscillating lights and stopped [REDACTED] stopped his vehicle for the police and as the officers exited their squad car, [REDACTED] drove off at a slow rate of speed. 164B returned to the squad, followed and caught up to [REDACTED] who began throwing narcotics out of the window. Two officers exited the squad and recovered narcotics that [REDACTED] threw out the window at approximately 3339 S. Michigan. The two remaining officers caught up to [REDACTED] who bailed out of the car at 3712 S. Wabash and fled on foot. Flash messages were sent and officers from the 002nd District responded.

Sergeant Jerrold Bosak # 1347 located [REDACTED] hiding in the stairwell at 71 East 37th Place. Bosak announced his office. The suspect attempted to run past the Sergeant who grabbed [REDACTED] both fell to the ground. [REDACTED] made his escape by pushing off of Sergeant with his elbow. Sergeant Bosak struck the pavement and suffered a head wound. 2nd District officers located [REDACTED] in a stairwell at 3766 S. Indiana where he was arrested without incident.

[REDACTED] was identified by Captain Vaclavik as a civilian witness along with arrestee [REDACTED]

In his report, Captain Vaclavik documented [REDACTED] initial complaint in which he alleged that he was punched in the face by the officers assigned to Beat 134H now identified as John McHugh #10760 and Robert Bullington #8684 of Unit 001 as he was placed in their cage car. [REDACTED] further alleged that an unknown officer punched him on the face while he was being placed inside a processing room at the 001st District Station. [REDACTED] who sustained a cut to his lower lip and abrasion to his right leg, refused medical attention. (Atts. 2,14).

Investigation: (con't):

Obtained Preliminary Investigation Report of IPRA Inv. Delaney dated 30 November 2007. At District 001, Captain Vaclavik advised Inv. Delaney that during his interview with [REDACTED] alleged that while he was being transported to the station following his arrest, the transporting officers punched him on the face. Once at the station, [REDACTED] was placed in an interview room near the lock-up. [REDACTED] stated that at that location, an unidentified officer grabbed him ([REDACTED] by the hair and struck him on the face.

Captain Vaclavik further advised that an arrestee identified as [REDACTED] was being processed near the interview room where [REDACTED] was allegedly struck. [REDACTED] was interviewed by Captain Vaclavik in the presence of Inv. Delaney. [REDACTED] stated that he ([REDACTED] observed an unidentified individual in an interview room behind him but he did not see, hear or have any knowledge of any commotion in any interview room.

Inv. Delaney then interviewed [REDACTED] outside the presence of Captain Vaclavik. Inv. Delaney observed that [REDACTED] had become incoherent and was unable to focus on any questions posed to him. Inv. Delaney stated that a review of [REDACTED] arrest report indicated that he suffers from schizophrenia. When asked about his medical condition in general, [REDACTED] added that he did not recall any person being interviewed near him before he entered the lock-up. As Inv. Delaney was terminating the interview, [REDACTED] stated that he "just remembered" that while he was handcuffed and prior to his entering the lock-up, he observed a male/black, wearing a yellow shirt placed into an interview room behind him. [REDACTED] stated that he did not know of or recall any unusual activity within that noted interview room.¹

Inv. Delaney attempted to interview [REDACTED] who refused to be interviewed and requested a lawyer. [REDACTED] did volunteer that during the course of this incident, the arresting officers struck him on the face and body. [REDACTED] refused to provide additional information as to where this incident occurred.

Inv. Delaney observed a small laceration on the inside, top part of [REDACTED] lower lip. (Atts. 4,5,6,10).

Obtained Interview of Complainant, [REDACTED] advised that on the date of the incident he was driving in the vicinity of 23rd and Michigan when he was waved over by an unmarked squad car containing five male black officers. [REDACTED] stated that he knew the officers seated in the squad car from the area. [REDACTED] advised that he did not observe any emergency equipment and based on the harassment he received for being on television for a (Harold) Ickey Project's incident where he was forced to drop his pants; he ([REDACTED] drove away. [REDACTED] stated that he drove eight or nine blocks to 34th and Michigan, exited his vehicle, and ran approximately one block to 37th and Wabash where he hid in a stairwell. While hiding in the stairwell, an unknown white/male [REDACTED] ran past the unknown male, who he later learned was the Sergeant in charge of the five male/black officers, toward Michigan where he was caught by the police near 37th and Indiana. [REDACTED] stated that he was tackled to the ground and an officer put a knee in his back and handcuffed him. One of the officers kicked [REDACTED] in the right leg. Once lifted to his feet by the handcuffs, [REDACTED] stated that an unknown male/white uniformed officer punched him on the face and mouth twice. This same officer pushed [REDACTED] head against the trunk of the squad car multiple times before he threw him into the squad car. [REDACTED] stated that this officer drove him to the police station in a marked squad car and that this officer was the only officer that physically maltreated him. [REDACTED] advised that at the police station at 1718 South State, he was placed into an interview room. The five black officers entered the room and told [REDACTED] to call his lawyer and Jesse Jackson. At this point, [REDACTED] advised that an unknown, male/white, stocky build, officer in casual dress entered the room and repeatedly punched him ([REDACTED] in the mouth while he was handcuffed. [REDACTED] sustained cuts to his bottom lip and his front tooth was chipped. [REDACTED] stated that he asked to go to the hospital but was denied. [REDACTED] stated he was falsely charged for aggravated battery to a police officer because he did not have any physical contact with the officer. [REDACTED] also stated that he was falsely arrested for possession also and related that this incident was a direct result of a prior incident that occurred at the Ickey homes. [REDACTED] then stated that he sustained lacerations to his mouth and chipped a tooth. [REDACTED] stated that he did not seek medical attention. [REDACTED] could not provide specific and/or detailed physical descriptions of the involved officers. (Atts. 60,61,62).

Obtained Interview of Witness, [REDACTED] was interviewed on 25 April 2008 and provided a statement. Within a few seconds, [REDACTED] observed a plainclothes police officer in her backyard with his hand on the side of his forehead and bleeding. The officer appeared to be disorientated and wobbling a bit. [REDACTED] exited her residence and rendered aid to the officer who sat down on her porch. At that time several officers came on the scene both on foot and in squad cars. [REDACTED] advised that within ten minutes, a squad car stopped briefly in the front of the yard. Conclusion:

The Reporting Investigator recommends that Allegations #1-7 against Officers Corey Anderson #6023, Rashad Kilgore #8045, Akil Upchurch #7143 and Matthew Miner #7913, Unit 001 be Not Sustained. This investigation revealed insufficient evidence to corroborate and/or refute the allegations made by [REDACTED]. There is no evidence to support the account of [REDACTED] in any manner and/or why he did not initially report these allegations to Captain Vaclavik. While [REDACTED] identified the officers that physically maltreated him as male black in casual dress. Officers Anderson, Kilgore, Upchurch and Miner, who fit the identifying characteristics provided by [REDACTED] deny any physical contact with [REDACTED]. The only physical contact with [REDACTED] which was documented was a Tactical Response Report prepared by Sergeant Bosak, who was in fact the victim of a battery which was perpetrated by [REDACTED]. In addition, [REDACTED] was placed under arrest by officers from an outside unit, who then turned [REDACTED] over to the above listed accused officers. Based on the lack of evidence to substantiate or refute the allegations made by [REDACTED] all allegations against all above identified accused officers must be Not Sustained.

The Reporting Investigator recommends that Allegation #1 against Officers John McHugh #10760 and Robert Bullington #8684, Unit 001, be Not Sustained. This investigation revealed insufficient evidence to corroborate the allegation made by [REDACTED]. In his initial reporting of the incident, to Captain Vaclavik, [REDACTED] related the allegation as indicated and it was Captain Vaclavik who then identified Officers McHugh and Bullington as the accused officers.
